

PRIDE IN THE PRIDE (THE ELK RIDGE PRIDE)

You're in control of our school culture. Take pride.

TODAY'S PLAN

Step 1

What is pride?

Step 2

What's that like at Elk Ridge?

Step 3

What's my part?

Step 4

What's my plan?

WHAT IS PRIDE?

A group of lions is a pride. But the kind of pride we're talking about is the pride where you are proud of what you do or create.

Besides, lions eat elk. We don't want that kind of pride.

Let's talk about

SCHOOL PRIDE

We are PROUD of what we do.

You told us what we did that made you feel welcome, and we've spent the last three weeks trying to make you feel as welcome as possible.

To show you that we're serious about this, your teacher is going to take a moment right now to tell you what they tried and how it went.

That was the adults...

SO WHAT ABOUT THE KIDS?

OTHER STUDENTS

What have you seen students do for other students that make the school a better place?

Be specific. Use names and actual events - not just general statements.

OTHER ACTIONS

What actions have you seen students take that make the school a place you want to be?

This can be things they do for the school and not necessarily for another person.

BEING PART OF THE PRIDE

You do the lion's share in making the school great.

Unless we're talking about eating elk, in which case you shouldn't do the lion's share.

WHAT'S YOUR PART? WHAT'S YOUR PLAN?

Could Be Better

Identify areas where our school could be better. Kinder kids? Language in the halls? Lonely students?

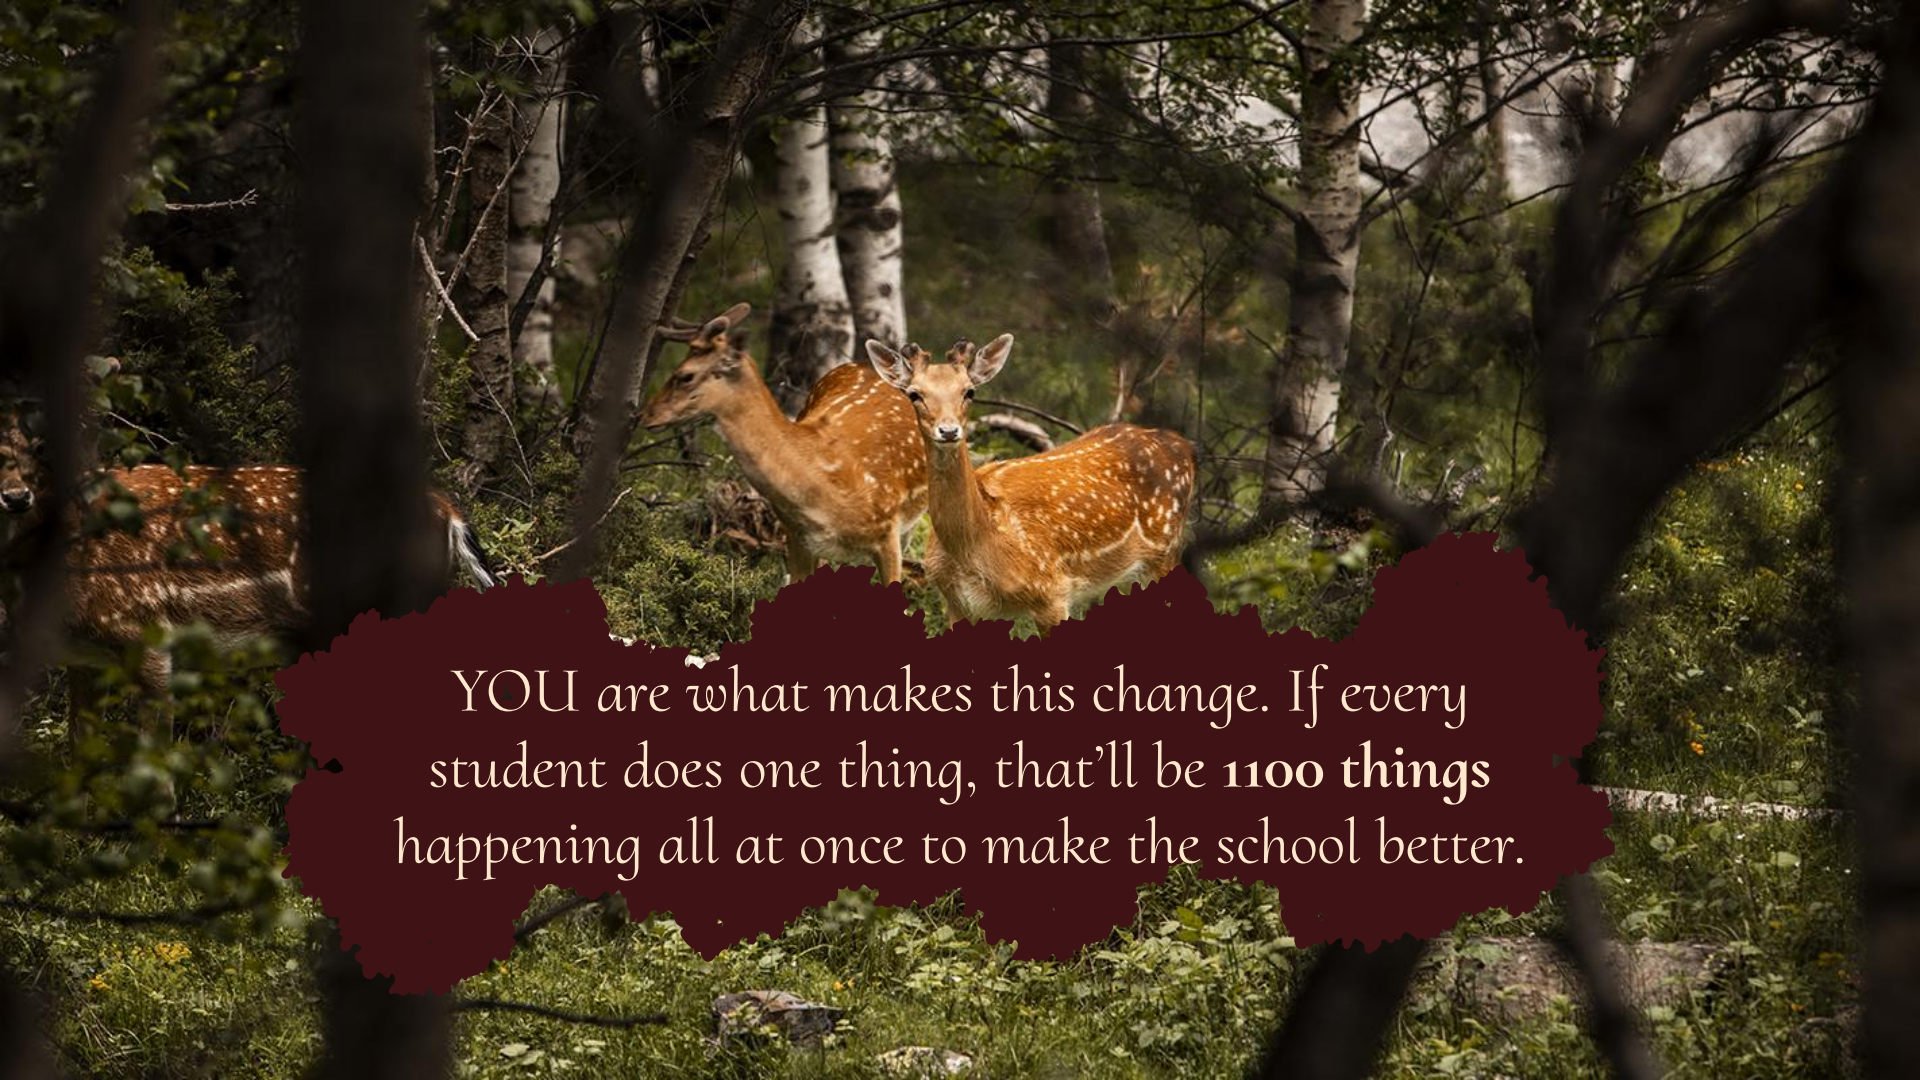

Can Be Better

Describe how those things could be made better by someone. Be specific or it won't help.

Will Be Better

Make a specific plan for YOU to do something over the next two weeks about one of those things.

A photograph of three spotted deer in a forest. The deer are standing in a grassy clearing with trees in the background. A dark red, irregularly shaped text box is overlaid at the bottom of the image.

YOU are what makes this change. If every student does one thing, that'll be 1100 things happening all at once to make the school better.
